

Bring your SMG classroom to life with a guest speaker from the financial industry.

It's easy – Register your class and the SIFMA Foundation will help you find a match. Invest It Forward™ strives to engage hundreds of industry firms across the country this spring with your students and classrooms, capturing thousands of hours of expert time, representing millions of dollars in financial education and capital markets literacy support.

How to Make the Most of Your Invest It Forward™ Experience:

Register here

<https://www.stlouisfed.org/BSR/FinancialEducation/>

Upon your first visit, you will need to establish your account:

- Select Create Account.
- Select SIFMA Invest It Forward in the region box.
- Select Teacher in the User Type and then proceed to register your first class. You can currently choose one of five dynamic topics. Stay tuned as new topics will continue to be added.
- You will immediately receive an e-mail confirmation of your request from FinEd@stls.frb.org.
- At this time, you can and are encouraged to register any additional classes or you can return later.
- When a volunteer selects a class that you have registered, you and your volunteer will receive an e-mail with your respective contact details to initiate communication.
- SIFMA Foundation and the Invest It Forward™ Team will monitor both teacher and volunteer requests on a weekly basis to ensure that no classroom or volunteer is left without a requested opportunity.

Please do actively communicate with your volunteer in advance to confirm: the date, time, location and # of students. Reassure the volunteer that you will be present in the classroom during their talk.

Provide your volunteer with instruction for registering as a guest at your school.

Make any special arrangement specific to your class, ie) sign or ESL interpreters.

Prepare your students for the material that will be covered and assess their pre-presentation knowledge.

Follow-up with your students with additional resources and assess their post-presentation knowledge.

Contact us at IIF@sifma.org with any questions or comments. Thank you.
