

Virginia Council of Economic Education Application Process -- UVa-Wise Summer Course ECO 2550

Welcome to the UVa-Wise and the summer course offering ECO 2550. The following steps will help you as you navigate the process of becoming a non-degree (ND) seeking student at UVa-Wise. As you move through the steps below, do not hesitate to email and ask questions of either your Program Administrator or the Office of the Registrar. We hope you have a productive and enjoyable experience!

STEP 1

Fill out the Non-Degree Seeking Student Application found at the end of this document and return to the Program Administrator.

Once you have processed our application and are in the system, you will receive notification from the Office of Admissions that you have been admitted.

STEP 2

Once admitted and in the Student Information System, you will be eligible for registration. Upon receiving approval to join the course, the Program Administrator (or designee) will send your name to the Office of the Registrar and you will be registered for the course.

Note: It is during this step that the Cashier will be notified that you are part of the VCEE program. Should you receive a bill for the course, simply tell our instructor or contact the Office of the Registrar (276-328-0117) and this will be corrected.

STEP 3

Moodle Login

Moodle is the Learning Platform that will be used in the ECO 2550 course. Upon registration for the course, you will automatically have a Moodle account activated. Should you have problems with Moodle, contact your course instructor and he will follow up with appropriate personnel. Go to my.uvawise.edu (you do not need to log in to that page) and scroll down to see the Moodle Login Icon

Click the Moodle Icon and you will find the Moodle Login Page (pic below). Use your Student Information System login to access your ECO 2550 course.

The Honor System

The Honor System, adopted by the college in 1956, is a form of student self-government under which all students pledge to cooperate in acting honestly and honorably. Specifically, the System rests on the premise that lying, cheating, and stealing are not tolerable within the College community. The Honor System is administered by an Honor court elected by the student body and composed of representatives from each class. It is grounded in the belief that students are honest and trustworthy. A violation of the System in an offense against the entire student body. A violation can result in dismissal from the college or imposition of an intermediate sanction. The College will automatically enforce any sanction imposed by the Honor Court on a student certified to be guilty of a breach of the Honor System.

I hereby apply for admission to the University of Virginia's College at Wise and certify that the information provided on this application is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that omitting information or providing false information will result in denial or dismissal from the College. If accepted, I agree to comply with and be governed by all the rules and regulations of the College. I further agree to subscribe to the Honor system administered by the student body.
