

VIRGINIA COUNCIL ON
ECONOMIC & The Centers for EDUCATION Economic Education at

University of Lynchburg

Present these One Day Professional Development Programs for Educators

Life After High School: Navigating Education, Career & Debt

Held in Fairfax. Conducted by George Mason University Center.

April 24, 2019, 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

For High School & Middle School Teachers & Counselors

Young peoples' small choices may have big effects. Give your students the knowledge, resources and a solid decision-making framework to make prudent choices about education, training, and career and how to manage any associated costs.

Performance Based Assessments Across K-12 Subjects: Essential Skills in Economics

Held in Lynchburg.

Conducted by the Center at the University of Lynchburg.

June 18, 2019, 8:30 am - 3:30 pm

For K-12 Educators, All Subject Areas

This program begins with a review of performance-based assessments (PBAs) best-practices as recommended by the Virginia Department of Education. Examples of multidisciplinary PBAs correlated to specific Standards of Learning will be shared. While the "Essential Skills" in economics (aka, economic reasoning skills) are required in every K-12 social studies subject, these 21st century life-skills are applicable to all subjects and everyday life.

Econ-Mini-Camp: Environmental Economics

Held in Harrisonburg. Conducted by JMU Center.

June 25, 2019, 9:00 am - 2:30 pm

For High School & Middle School Educators

Delve into the world of environmental economics and gain valuable content highlighting environmental issues specifically in the Shenandoah Valley.

Personal Finance Teacher Forum

Held in Richmond. Conducted by VCU Center.

August 2, 2019, 9:00 am - 3:45 pm

For High School & Middle School Educators

Virginia is full of talented Economics & Personal Finance teachers. Teachers: Sign up to share lessons and resources that work well with your students or come to learn from your colleagues.

Register at vcee.org

No charge for these programs.

Lunch is provided.

Funding Provided by

The Fund for Teaching Excellence

A Special Thanks to VCEE's 2018 Annual Contributors

Major Contributors

BB&T | SunTrust Foundation | VBA Education
Foundation | Wells Fargo | State Farm

Contributors

Bank of America | Capital One | Claude Moore Charitable
Foundation | The Mary and Daniel Loughran Foundation, Inc.
| Virginia Credit Union | Virginia Lottery | Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants

The Virginia Council on Economic Education, a 501(c)(3) non-profit entity, works to ensure that Virginia's K-12 students acquire the economic knowledge and financial skills needed to thrive in our dynamic economy. VCEE and affiliated university-based Centers for Economic Education provide professional development and classroom programs for educators.

www.vcee.org