

ECONOMIC EDUCATOR AWARDS PROGRAM & LUNCHEON

Co-Presented by the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
 701 E. Byrd St. | Richmond, VA

Join us in recognizing outstanding Virginia educators who distinguish themselves by their strong knowledge of economic education and financial literacy, inspiring classroom performance, and use of creative methods to engage students. Through a nomination process, approximately 12 educators are selected each year to receive cash prizes and/or classroom mini-grants, and are celebrated with a special luncheon program at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

Your sponsorship is an investment in economic education and financial literacy in Virginia.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES	Title Sponsor $10,000	Community Champion Sponsor $6,000	Inspiring Lesson Plan Sponsor $3,000	Classroom Mini-Grant Sponsor $1,000	Sponsor A School $500
Exclusive naming rights – “... Economic Educator Awards, co-presented by VCEE and Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond”
Speaking opportunity to provide greeting
Photo opportunity with winning teachers and state education leaders
Recognition on invite, program, and signage
Emcee recognition from podium
Recognition on program marketing materials
Recognition on VCEE website and social media
Invitations to attend and reserved seating
Your company logo will be displayed at a winning teacher’s school table

The generous sponsors below recognize the critical role teachers play in advancing economic education and financial literacy. Your support empowers young people to own their economic success.

For additional sponsorship information, contact Jennie Romero at jrromero@vcu.edu or (804) 828-6054. Learn more at vcee.org and stay up to date on Facebook @virginiacouncilconomiceducation.